The Oracle

*We present the chronicle of a year's journey
—an education
at Randolph High School.*

*It will end its span of time and space
on a June Sunday,
but it will remain in the memories of its people
and in his book.*

*Here
a quick glance may be taken at the classes, activities, and events
that have been the steps to knowledge for the three hundred men and women of our senior class.*

*Our goal lies with the future—
this is the record of our high school ascent.*

DEDICATION

Miss Marguerite O'Neil . . .

. . . with her senior French class—doing what she enjoys most.

For her untiring interest in the success of her students, for the rewards which her students have received from her ceaseless efforts with the language lab., and for the intellectual atmosphere she has created by her presence the class of 1965 most sincerely dedicates its Oracle to Miss Marguerite O'Neil.

Mr. Powdiby, I will always remember you the greatest. Lynn Stevens

One of the Office helpers /

One day at Randolph is often much the same as any other,
but it manages to have a character that sets it apart.

The details are the same—homeroom, classes, lunch period, meetings after school—
but some particular feature, an assembly, a Track meet,
or the delivery of Senior pictures,
marks each day
as separate in our memories.

These are the landmarks that have marked our climb.

Mr. Lehtinen observes Eunice while she solves a problem in advanced math.

The Steps To A Future

Miss Rusch, Librarian, checks out Kathy Costello before school.

Top Of The Ladder . . .

*The essence of Randolph is variety.
Daily routine gives way easily to the multitude of events that star every cycle of seven periods.
Each class stands out in a relief of personality and changing subject matter.*

Finally Seniors

*Every lunch period, each five minutes between classes becomes a social function.
We have been able to carry on a warm and friendly relationship among ourselves and with the faculty.
Few have not used it to make the day's time more pleasant and socially rewarding.*

*Our intellectual growth is inspired by our faculty.
The achievements of a student body reflect their efforts.
We are fortunate to have profited
from the dedication of our teaching staff.
They have shown us
the path—
the steps we take depend on us.*

ENGLISH

Several major innovations in the curriculum and School life, highlighted by the establishment of the RHS Paperback Book Store, marked this year's program in the English Department under its new chairman, Mr. Kearney. In a long-range effort to strengthen and expand the English curriculum at all levels with an ultimate goal of stronger vertical articulation of English in all the secondary grades, the department has introduced several immediate revisions. Among these are the sequential vocabulary program, the initiation of cumulative reading and writing records on each student for each year in school, the requirement that all college-prep students complete a formal research paper in senior year, and the implementation of a departmental testing program in the last four grades. In addition, intensive study is being given to a formal summer reading program and a seminar course in comparative world literature.

LANGUAGES

The language program at Randolph High School strives to guide more of our students in attaining greater proficiency and some in achieving real mastery of the foreign language skills. In the well equipped laboratory, the student is given maximum practice in listening comprehension and in the real use of the foreign language. Latin and modern language courses in French, Spanish, and Russian are offered to the students.

BUSINESS

Miss Marion F. Diemond,
Head of Business Education Department; Office Practice and Typing II.

Randolph High School should be justly proud of the Business Education Department. This department offers a curriculum which includes the teaching of fundamentals in all skills in the field of Business.

The Office Practice class, a required course of all senior Business people, gives the student a workable knowledge of all modern machines in a modern office environment.

Graduates of the department have been placed in good positions throughout the state and have brought much credit to R.H.S.

Mr. Hurley gets Pat and Ellen squared away on the assignment.

HISTORY

In an ever changing world, the value of history continually increases. We have no way of gauging the future, but by the past. To keep pace with the times, the History Department, aside from normal subject areas, concentrates on the problems of today such as segregation, communism, and political corruption. Likewise, students learn about government and how it operates so that they can realize the benefits of living in a democracy.

At Randolph High, history comes alive through the medium of lectures, records, films, and field trips. The History Department is constantly working towards the goal to prepare students for the role of responsible well-informed citizens.

MATHEMATICS

Mathematics, the key to the future, is once again one of the strong points of the R.H.S. curriculum.

Under the guidance of Department Head, Mr. Paul Lehtinen, the courses have been strengthened and extended. As a result, there are now courses designed for those who desire to advance into some of the more complex aspects of this subject.

Utilizing this program, the Math Department has provided us with the opportunities which can lead to success.

SCIENCE

Mrs. Rosemary Sullivan
Head of Science Department; Chemistry

From the study of biology to the intricacies of chemistry and physics . . . this is the span of the Science Department at Randolph High School. Under the supervision of the Department Head, Mrs. Rosemary Sullivan, science has gained new importance and vitality for us students. Not only are the practical concepts studied, but, for those who desire, the opportunity to advance into further realms is provided.

All of this is designed specifically to give us the background knowledge of science necessary for both everyday life and for the understanding of tomorrow.

Teachers of

We are fortunate to have expert training in several specialized fields which are a valuable and necessary part of our education. Mrs. Tierney gives students the opportunity to overcome their reading difficulties and improve their speed, while Mr. Polio and Miss English help develop the latent artistic talent which many of our students have. In the field of Home Economics, Mrs. Stribley and Miss Reen are preparing the girls for future homemaking, and Mr. Zapustas and Mr. French with Miss Skeels keep us physically fit. Miss Reusch is guardian of the library and Mr. Raposa, who succeeded Mr. Lacey as Director of Music, makes musicians of students and entertains us at assemblies and sport events. These specialists enrich and complete the curriculum here at Randolph High School.

GUIDANCE

Each year the Guidance Department takes giant steps in providing both advancement of school standards and better opportunity of placement. Applications, references, and careful examination of student aptitude for the right choice of college are daily offerings. A series of tests given throughout the year to the various grades are also administered by the Guidance Department. Whether the visit is for advice on a personal problem, help getting into college, in acquiring a job, or a need of a friend, the Guidance Department is the place to go.

Miss Winifred M. Brennan
Assistant Director of Guidance
Senior Class Adviser

Mrs. Simmons manages a smile in the hurry of processing applications.

ADMINISTRATION

My Dear Graduates:

Randolph High School has been a point from which the ascent to a successful, happy, and full life has taken on momentum. Though most of you will take different paths in the years to come, I am sure your thoughts will always bring you back to the one place which holds so many memories for you . . . Randolph High School.

We who have been a part of your life and your preparation and your triumphs will follow your subsequent career with the keenest of interest. We have faith in you and faith in your future.

May God shower you with His blessings and guide you on your journey up the steps of life.

With heartfelt congratulations,
Hubert F. Gilgan

Mr. Gilgan dictates his message to the Seniors to his secretary, Mrs. Vennick.

Our Principal is also an excellent organist.

Mr. Powderly keeps things in a very orderly fashion.

Directing Our Affairs

The secretaries, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Vennick and Mrs. Simmons are always at our service.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Seated: Mrs. Marie Cormey, Mr. Raymond McGerrigle, and Mrs. Patricia McDermott. Standing: Mr. William Lynch, Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Charles Green, Mr. Peter Davin, and Mr. Thomas Warren, Superintendent.

Mr. Pina pauses to answer a question presented by one of his students.

Miss Brewster uses a study period to catch up on her reading in the library.

A Teacher's Day

The Dramatics Club makes a long but worthwhile day as Mr. Vellante works with a few of the cast members.

In Appreciation

MRS. ELIZABETH TIERNEY

It is with deep appreciation that we the class of 1965 say thank you to Mrs. Elizabeth Tierney. For many years she has given of her time, energy, and precious advice so that the Oracle would be a lasting chronicle of memories for the Seniors of Randolph High School. We hope that she has found as much pleasure in working with us as we have had learning from her.

Those Who Led Us

President
William Saidel

Fellow graduates of Randolph High School! For the past four short, but wonderful years, we have worked, studied, and socialized together. We entered Randolph High School not knowing each other very well. Now we leave it with many close friendships formed, many sorrows and joys jointly shared.

Look around. We see success. We see the culmination of four years of hard work. We see the time and effort sacrificed to achieve our individual goals. We see the good, honest contributions that made these four years what they are.

What were these years? They were the years when we placed our lives in the care of a wonderful school to guide us, to teach us, and to impart to us a sense of duty, a sense of honesty, and a sense of confidence in our ability to handle the problems of our new life. These were the years we had begun the climb to reach our goals.

To the faculty we owe much of our present and future success. We will repay them with the best possible compliment: applying the lessons they have taught us.

Now we part. We go our separate ways, but the memories will echo in the hearts of every member of the class of 1965 as we continue along the steps of life.

To each and everyone of you, I extend my most heartfelt wishes for success.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

All of us will soon take our places as voters. Some of us will stand at the head of some faction of our society as elected officers or leaders in our various areas of employment. It will be the earliest lesson in democracy that guides us. We, this year, have learned our lesson well. We have sensibly selected officers who possess the qualities of leadership and a respect for the position to which they have been elected.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Junior officers listen to President Bob Favreau outline plans for the Junior Dance.

One stop from the top and ready to take over . . . next year will be your big year . . . the class of 1966 will become the senior class. There will be many problems and responsibilities, but the rewards are great. Next year's presidents, editors, and captains will be chosen mostly from the class of 66. The prom, yearbook and newspaper will become your responsibility. There will be much work, but there will also be much enjoyment participating with students you have known for four years. So then up and start working now to assure a successful senior year.

P. Konary, V. Pres., J. Mullaney, Sec., M. Turner, Treas.,
G. Willis, Pres. confer about the year's plans.

You have completed your second year of high school. Now you must make your decisions on what subjects to take. Chemistry, United States History and American Literature will prove difficult, but worthwhile. You must also begin to consider your future work and how to prepare for it. Whether you choose to go into the business world or on to college, the education you receive will be of great value. Yet, high school is much more than just academic preparations. Clubs, athletic teams, and student publications offer an interesting vacation from studies. So cheer up! In two years you will be seniors, and your problems will just begin.

VOCATIONAL SHOP

To produce a well trained mechanic is the goal of the Randolph High Vocational School. After passing an entrance examination, the boys begin a course in automotive repair and related classroom subjects.

During the past six years, boys from this course have entered the Troubleshooters contest sponsored by the Chrysler Corporation, Plymouth Division. The boys have always had a fine finish comparable to our size school.

After completing this four year course, the graduates of R.H.S. Vocational School are well trained journeymen in their field.

ACTIVITIES

Education at Randolph often goes on unnoticed several hours after the final bell. Most students belong to at least one activity, but many are members of several clubs or organizations. Their motives generally center on the social benefits, but their participation is often a valuable service in return for the more precious gift of an education.

The Key Club, the F.T.C., the Dramatics Club—all make positive contributions to the school while developing the talents of leadership and labor in the individual. Activities are yet another step to an education—socially as well as intellectually.

STUDENT

The voice of student government at Randolph High School is the Student Council. As spokesmen and leaders, they provide an instrument of mutual understanding between the student body and the administration. The best indication of success is their achievement. Continued good relations within the school are an important accomplishment for which the Student Council can take no little credit.

and Sandy about future events.

COUNCIL

The Foster Parent Plan by which we support a little girl in Italy, Rosalia Zito, has been maintained under Student Council leadership for three years. To our knowledge, Randolph was the first school in the State to aid a foster child with funds provided by the student body. Under the guidance of Mr. James Santry the Student Council has continued the many regular activities of the school years — Teacher Appreciation Day, The Christmas Decoration Contest, Student Teacher Day, and class elections.

Mr. Gilgan is delighted with our gift.

OFFICERS

Under the direction of the new advisor, Mr. Papa, the National Honor Society continues to give recognition to the top student for Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. In addition to the four officers led by the President, Louis Deane, there is an elected executive board of three members to help officers and a faculty advisory committee of four to help the director in choosing applications for admission into the Society. All work together in making the Joseph Daly Chapter of the National Honor Society a truly admirable organization of Randolph High School.

THE 1965 ORACLE

The Oracle is the final result of months of confusion and co-operation, of frantic hurry and friendly collaboration, and of persistent worry and personal sacrifice. The details of the yearbook—the layout, the innumerable bits of copy, the typing, and the pictures—present a formidable task, accomplished by the efforts of the entire staff. But the Oracle is not only a publication of our collective memories, but it is a living organization, composed of a widely varied staff, directed by advisers whose ability is both essential and everpresent.

Jim and Art make a few changes in the layout.

Jim, Art, and Ginny check with Mr. Papa and Mrs. Tierney to see what still has to go to the publisher.

Pledges—Ads—Receipts

More—more—more—money. The familiar ring that echoes in the ears of each member of the Oracle Business Staff. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Tierney, our Business Adviser, the members are constantly remembering their motto, "I'd walk a mile for the Oracle."

BLUE AND WHITE BANNER

Adviser, Mrs. Noblin checks final edition . . .

For the last decade at R.H.S., the Blue and White Banner through dedicated advisers and the devotion of countless staff members has been Randolph's four-page forum of high school journalism. It has grown as the school has grown in scope and in involvement.

The year 1964-65 has marked a turning point in this growth. The editors pledged to themselves and to the school a new dimension in coverage. The hard work of a business staff and the skilled management of Mr. James Santry made possible, for the first time, larger and better issues. The imagination of a literary staff and the wisdom of the adviser, Mrs. Jean Noblin, made the possibility a reality.

KEY CLUB

Today, the Key Club is a growing organization whose duties touch on many areas: keeping order in the auditorium before school, helping to keep the lunch program running smooth, helping the Guidance Department during Sophomore testing and underclassman scheduling and also trying to arouse school spirit.

As the years go by the Key Club will change in its duties and its members, but it will always remain an organization devoted to school spirit and school service.

Randolph's Own Bit of Broadway

Randolph High looks forward with expectation to the yearly offering of the Dramatics Club. Reborn four years ago with Mr. Anthony Vellante as adviser, the club has grown and matured with the many seniors who began their careers as freshmen in the club's first production, "The Night Is My Enemy." Each succeeding year has meant new and progressively more challenging dramatic fare, with this year's play, "The Man Who Came To Dinner," promising to be the best yet. A growing membership has seen the advent of the best actor and actress awards, as well as highly successful Halloween mixer to make the club an artistic and social whole.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Future Teachers Club at Randolph High School is one of the largest and most active clubs in the school. Through panel discussions and interesting talks by students training to be teachers, the club members learn about the many challenging and rewarding aspects of teaching as a career. Visits to colleges specializing in teacher preparation and to schools of special interest, broadens and directs the members interests in teaching as a career. On the social side, a current play and a dance, and annual banquet and an outing in June are included on the club's agenda.

With all details checked, President Steve Dlott and adviser, Miss Foley, prepare to leave on trip.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Mrs. Signe Heath R. N.

One of the most practical and useful of the wide variety of clubs available to students of Randolph High School is the Future Nurses Club.

It is unusual in offering vocational training in one of the most vital of professions, nursing. It serves as an introduction to nursing and allows one to decide whether or not this is her calling.

Instruction in the art of nursing is offered regularly by Mrs. Signe Heath, our Registered Nurse.

BIOLOGY and CHESS CLUBS

This year saw the formation of a new club out of the enthusiasm of a teacher and many of his students. The Biology Club is another addition to the many after school activities that allow people of like interests to pursue their mutual curiosities and goals. Under the leadership of Mr. Kevin O'Brien, the club has enjoyed not only the regular meetings, but also, a field trip to the Museum of Science.

Under the supervision of Mr. Rizzo, the members of the Chess Club are taught the strategies and tactics of this thought provoking game. Many an enjoyable hour is spent by the members challenging and practicing with one another. The greatest reward comes when the master is mastered.

R.H.S. DANCE BAND

A select group of musicians picked from the R.H.S. band compose the musical delight that is known as the dance band. The few performances each year are a tasteful addition to the musical atmosphere of any dance or concert. Both long practice and substantial individual talent single out the dance band as a musical asset to our school.

Mr. Raposa conducts the chorus in one of their many rehearsals.

Under the able direction of Mr. Rhapsa the chorus continues to be a vital part of the entertainment program of R.H.S. Participating in S.E.M.S.B.A., district and all state festivals, members of the Randolph High Chorus proudly carry the name of our school throughout the state. In addition the chorus performs for the student body during Christmas and Spring Assemblies. This year the chorus hopes to follow up their initial success of "Bye Bye Birdie" with still another Broadway Hit: "L'il Abner". With the fine record of achievement thus provided, Randolph High can look forward to continued enjoyment from one of our schools hardest working groups.

DRILL TEAM

Every football game has its counterpart which is always a winning combination regardless of the strength of the competition or of the imbalance of the score.

The precision steps and graceful movements of our applause winning drill team never fail to lend excitement and pleasure to every fortunate spectator.

TWIRLERS

The music begins . . . and the twirlers step into action with precision and grace. The twirlers give the spectators much delight during the half at football games. All this is not done without a great deal of practice. Training new girls to take their place keeps the twirlers busy through the year as well as learning new routines for the annual competition for twirlers.

The 1964 Randolph High Football Team gave many crowds pleasing performances this past fall. Led by Co-Capt. Ed Lord and his running mate, Paul Brooks, the Blue Devils showed fine flashes of offensive power and coupled with their rock-ribbed defense (3rd best in the league) played a fine brand of football. They saved their crowning achievements for Thanksgiving Morning against powerful O. A. In one of the finest high school games played that day, the Devils, decided underdogs, lost 6-0 but covered themselves with glory forever.

SPRING TRACK

Ray throws as Bob and Russ wonder if that's how Gary Gubner does it.

Last year's spring track team once again proved that they were the leaders of the cinder track. Led by coach Job Pistone the Devils finished their season as the only undefeated, untied team in the Hockomock League. The chief reason for this lies not only in the quality of the individual performers but also in the spirit and determination of the whole team. As they have proven time and time again, the team with spirited determination is the team that wins.

Art Dulong, Randolph breaks State record with 4:21 mile.

CROSS COUNTRY

The climax to the Randolph Harrier's fantastic season came when Arthur Dulong electrified the area by smashing the cross-country record at the New England Regionals. This event was the culmination of a string of victories which extended unbroken for three consecutive years. In accomplishing this, Randolph has become the strongest cross-country team in the South Shore.

1st row: l-r: J. Concannon, T. Perakslis, M. Burke, P. McGowen, M. Gale, R. Bullock, T. Flaherty, M. Dinsmore. 2nd row: l-r: T. Fahey, J. Richman, A. Dulong, J. Hunter, J. Bullock, P. Porter, V. DeFelice, Coach John Pistone.

WINTER TRACK

L-R: Row 1: J. Concannon, J. Connors, A. Dulong, Coach Pistone, Capt. P. McGeown, E. Lord, R. Sullivan. Row 2: D. Eves, J. Bullock, T. Perakslis, M. Dinsmore, M. Heywood, C. Wengler, G. Spellman. Row 3: R. Leite, J. Fraser, E. Heywood, R. Strickland, R. Franklin, V. DeFelice, J. Yundt, S. Prenovitz.

Jimmy Connors doesn't care what the weather is as the gym is used for practice when the boys can't go outside.

The 1965 season was one of challenge for the winter track team. It was met by an undefeated season in a new league—Division III of the Met. League. In dual meets, the team showed outstanding strength, threatening to shut out almost all competition. Finally shaking the jinx of the major meet, Randolph gained the Class C State Championship at Boston Garden and finished consistently high in the standings of every other meet entered.

Coach John Pistone's team has been studded with glittering individual performances. Four runners, Ed Haywood in the dash, Mike Burke and Paul McGeown in the 1,000, and Art Dulong in the mile and two-mile, qualified for the national indoor championships. Dulong set a Class C State Record in a mile time of 4:21 and then proceeded to set a Class C State and New England mark of 9:13 in the two-mile.

GOLF TEAM

Since the introduction of golf at R.H.S. three years ago, the golf team has yet to encounter a losing season. Following the example set by Coach Garon, the team displayed great spirit and diligence in winning six matches while losing only four. Seniors Leon Parkin, Bob Gass and co-captain Mat Fox were the outstanding contributors to the team while underclassmen Danny McKenzie and Anthony Iskra both showed a great potential for next season.

"Stop shaking," demands Danny McKenzie of team-mate, Anthony Iskra, before teeing off.

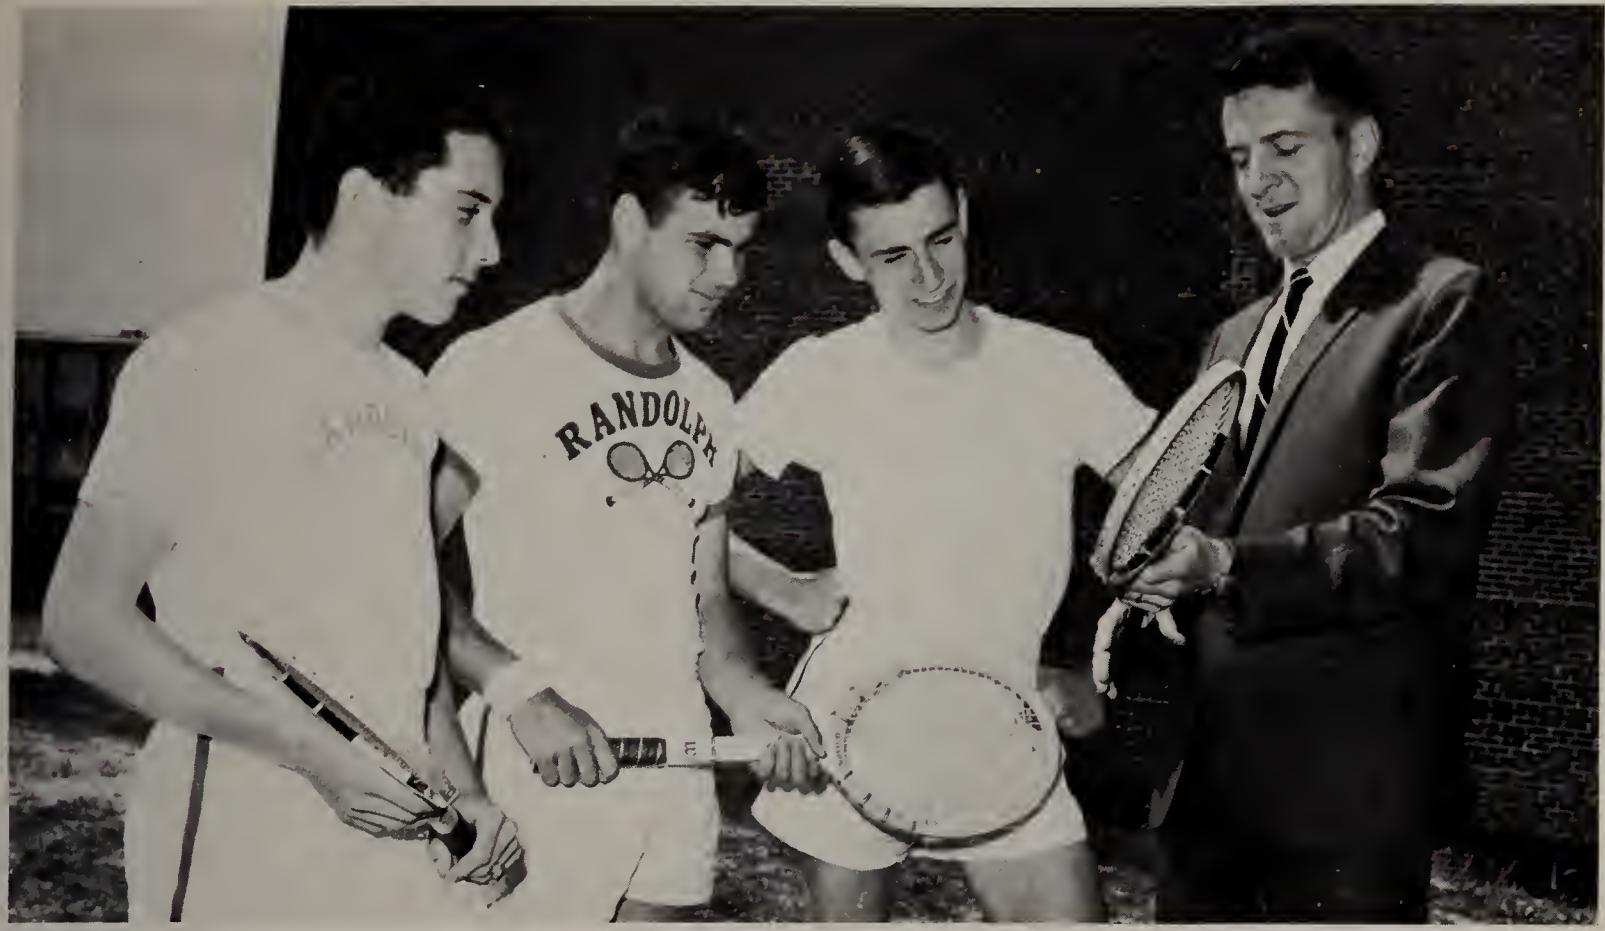

Coach Garron addresses the ball.

TENNIS

Led by the expert coaching of Mr. Leverone, the R.H.S. tennis team had its most successful season in three years. The team compiled a six and four record which showed great improvement after the winless season of the previous year.

Randolph High can look forward to another successful tennis season next year with the return of varsity players Steve Dlott, Mark Bornstein, Stu Leibovitz and co-captain William Saidel.

Steve Dlott demonstrates the technique of the serve as Lee Putnam, Mike McDonald, and Mark Bornstein look on.

Our Miss Football of "65" Linda Brusinski.

It's almost Spring!

Well, Arthur, there's always the Army.

That isn't the way it looked in the book

A proven fact many things go on at lunch hours.

A yearbook is only a shadow. In its pages are published a scant likeness of the people who truly live in our memories. We see but the outlines of the daily routine of classes and friends that filled our lives for four years. If the few impressions that can be reproduced here serve to create a small part of the memories held by each of us, our yearbook has succeeded in its purpose.

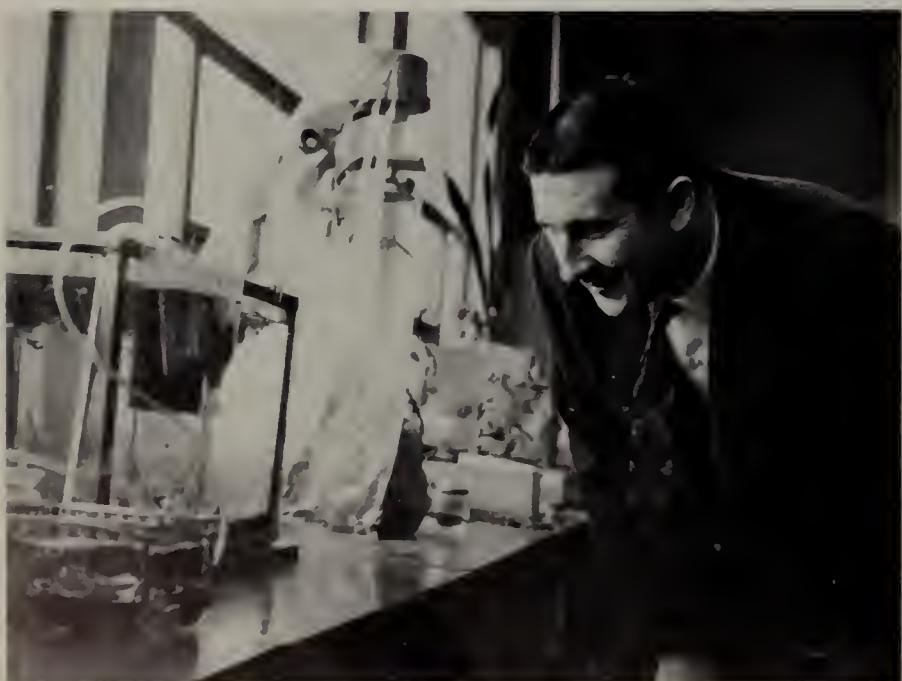

An enthusiastic crowd awaits a first-down decision!

Mr. Papa explains the Romantic Concepts of Literature.

Mr. Bourgeois visits with a little of his subject matter.

Our cafeteria workers prepared some food—Looks good.

Mr. Powderly,
You are our I
the nicest assistant Principals I have ever known. It's been a pleasure working for you as an effect girl.
I hope as next year will be as much fun as the office with you as this year was. Thank you for all the favors you have done for me. I hope you have a very nice summer.

One "Bumbadie"
Miss Franklin

Mr. Powderly,
I'd like to remember you being and for up see the
the times - I want to get some "old mettah" spur - I'll be a week back in the office from now on.

M. P
To one of the neatest assessors I have ever known. I never will have forgot all the time we have been to you a nice year because you a nice summer and I hope we have enjoyed it and I hope you a nice summer and I hope you a nice year

Ranck
"66" the one who always gets into trouble.

Mr Powderly

One of the fairest teachers in Randolph High School and who has the best judgment and understanding too.
Gene O'Connell

Mr. Powderly.

To a really wonderful man and Assistant Principal,
I will always remember how kind you were to me ever since I came to this school. Thank you

Herrie

Schoolcraft

You are a true friend to me. I have known you for many years now.
I am so glad you are here with us.
